THE LOSS OF THE ASIA. Terrible Experience of the Two Survivors

PARRY SOUND, Ont., Sept. 21 .- The constables sent to the vicinity of the Asia disaster have not yet returned. Some hopes are enter-tained that the books of the boat may be recovered, with the list of passengers. Miss Morrison is still very weak, and is confined to her bed, but the doctor considers her out of danger.

fore sunrise and got into our boat. It was calm then. We rowed a short time but then gave it up and went ashore and lay down on the rocks and went to sleep. An Indian came along and woke us up and asked if we were lost. We said we were. His squaw was in a boat. We asked him how far it was to a house. He said it was twenty-two miles and asked if we were hungry. He then got some bread and pork from his boat. I could not eat, but I drank some cold tea. Tinkis offered the Indian his watch to take us to Parry Sound. We had but little to eat on the way. The squaw made me a bed in the boat, and is lept there on Sunday night quite comfortably. Tinkis never gave up, except on Saturday morning, when we lay down on the rocks to die. I thought of the Babes in the woods, but saw no hope of rescue."

FORT WAYNE, Ind., Sept. 21.-Mrs. David

The trial of Edward Hovey, . murder in the first degree in shooting his sister in-law, Mrs. Vermily ea, at 273 West Thirty-eighth street, on April 26, was begun yesterday in the General Sessions. The defence will be an attempt to prove the shooting accidental. The prosecution will try to prove that Hovey was mable to support his wife and Mrs. Vermilyea offered them shelter. On April 25. Hovey four-fished a pistol and Mrs. Vermilyea took it from him. Next day be repeatedly declared his intention to be revenged for the taking of the pissol. He pawned a coat for $1.00, and buving a pistol and some cartridges, went bonce, and bevelling the pistol at Mrs. Vermilyea's bosom, without uttering a word, first Vermilyea's bosom, without uttering a word, first Vermilyea's bosom, without uttering a word, first Vermilyea's died within a few hours. Elizabeth Hovey, the prisoners wife, was called to the witness tand, but Mr. Kintzing, counsel for the defence, objected on the ground that a wife could not be compelled to testify against her husband. Jodgs Cowing said be would reserve his decision, and adjourned the trial unit to day. Mrs. Hovey was the only witness of the shooting and if her testimony is excluded the presecution will have to rely an circumstantial evidence or admissions of the presecute. ecution will try to prove that Hovey was unable to sup
